How can we learn from the unwritten story of the region -- and predict its future?

An examination of the conflicts now tearing apart the Arab world and the way in which journalism and governments frame our misunderstanding of it.

How can we learn from the unwritten story of the region -- and predict its future?

MAY 9, 2014
6:30 P.M.
BioScience Research Collaborative,
Rice University, 6500 Main Street
Paid visitor parking is located in the underground garage, off Dryden Road

Seating is limited.
To RSVP, please visit theaaef.org

Sponsored by the Arab-American Educational Foundation in collaboration with the Humanities Research Center