ACC Mission

The Arab American Cultural and Community Center (the "ACC") is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, non-religious, non-sectarian, and non-political organization serving Houston, Texas. Since its inception, the ACC has been committed to fulfilling its stated mission of serving the Arab-American community regardless of religion, nationality, ethnicity, gender or financial status. The ACC fulfills its mission by serving the community through cultural programs, providing outreach and social services, developing fellowship, nurturing a unity of purpose among people of Arab descent, and fostering a greater understanding of Arab culture and heritage by serving as a liaison and resource center for the Houston community at large. The ACC's aim is to contribute to the integration and exposure of Arabs, as Americans and to provide a forum for cultural, educational and recreational interaction.
