The Inaugural Lecture of the Michael and Hoda Kardoush Lecture Series

IRAQ AFTERWARDS:
EPISTEMIC VIOLENCE AND POETIC (IN)JUSTICE

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 20 2019

Reception
6:00 PM

Lecture
6:30 PM

Presented by
SINAN ANTfoon

Sinan Antoon is an Iraqi-born poet, novelist, scholar, translator, and associate professor at the Gallatin School for Individualized Study at New York University. Sinan Antoon studied at the University of Baghdad, Georgetown University, and Harvard University. He has published two collections of poetry and four novels, and his literary works have been translated into fourteen languages. His scholarly publications include The Poetics of the Obscene: Ibn al-Hajaj and Sukhf (Palgrave, 2014) and articles on the poetry of Mahmoud Darwish, Sargon Boulus, and Saadi Youssef. His most recent work is The Book of Collateral Damage (Yale University Press, 2019).

---

Hilton University of Houston
Conrad Ballroom
4800 Calhoun, TX 77004

Parking:
Available in the Underground Hotel Garage