Keynote Speaker:
Hon. Andrew C. von Eschenbach, MD
Commissioner, US Food and Drug Administration

With Special Introduction by:
Hon. Kevin Brady (R) Texas, Member of Congress

Andrew C. von Eschenbach, MD, was sworn in as the 20th Commissioner of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration on December 13, 2006. As Commissioner, he leads the nation's premiere consumer protection and health agency, with regulated products that account for more than 20% of consumer spending.

Kevin Brady is serving his sixth term in Congress representing the 8th District of Texas in the U.S House of Representatives. He serves on the Ways & Means Committee and on the Social Security and Trade subcommittees. The Ways and Means Committee is considered by many to be the most powerful committee in Congress, with jurisdiction over 2/3 of the federal budget including taxes, Social Security, Medicare, international trade and welfare.
