

Artist Rescue Mission and the Station Museum initiate Project Iraq with the film

IRAQ IN FRAGMENTS

Iraq in Fragments is a film of modern day Iraq told by Iraqis living in war and occupation. Nominated for an Oscar for Best Documentary, and winner of the Sundance Awards for Best Director and Best Cinematography.

Friday, Nov. 2 at 7:30 p.m.
Station Museum, 1502 Alabama

Reception to follow. A block party outside the Station Museum with free food and music concludes the evening.

Project Iraq is a yearlong project to raise awareness about Iraqi art and culture, and to render assistance to artists affected by the war. Presentations about the project will be made by artist Gertrude Barnhouse and Jane Harthun.

info: 713.529-6900 / email
threetrillion@yahoo.com