You and your family are cordially invited to attend:
The Muslim Legal Fund of America
Educational Seminar & Fund Raising Dinner
Saturday, October 24th 2009
Reception: 7:00 p.m.
Taj Hall
5615 Savoy Ln.
Houston, TX. 77036
Come listen to this captivating author as she brings her amazing journey to life, sharing her story and her insights on activism with the Houston community
Admission is OPEN
Due to limited space! RSVP @ tausaf@mlfausa.org

Yvonne Ridley
- An accomplished British journalist with over 30 years in the field. She has worked for BBC TV, CNN, ITN and Carlton TV
- A founding member of Women in Journalism, and a founding member of the Stop The War Coalition and the RESPECT political party.
- In September 2001 when she was captured by the Taliban in Afghanistan while working for the Sunday Express and later freed. She converted to Islam 30 months after her release.
- Ms. Ridley is the author of two books "In The Hands of the Taleban" and "Ticket to Paradise".
- Ms. Ridley is also well known in the Muslim world for her outspoken views and defense of Islam.
- Ms. Ridley has affirmed that she could present eyewitness accounts claiming that the woman known as 'Prisoner 650' held at the Bagram Prison for years is none other than Siddiqui.
- She has conducted several interviews and has done extensive research on the events surrounding the "capture" and alleged shooting by Ms Siddiqui.